

IRON MOUNTAIN CLUBHOUSE

Chongqing, China

CLIENT: Chongqing CASIN Enterprise Group Limited

DATE: 2011

SCALE: 1600s.m.

Situated on a sloping site within a new mountainside community, the Iron Mountain Clubhouse overlooks a new executive 9-hole golf course. The large central lobby of the building features a soaring glulam timber structure, framing the view over the golf course and distant mountains.

The extensive use of exposed wood structure and interior wood finish is unique to this area of China creating a warm interior atmosphere, reflective of the surrounding natural landscape.
